In 1993, Pastor Jim & Daphne Jorgensen were sent with their two daughters, Debra and Kristen, as missionaries to the Dominican Republic. The Lord quickly expanded their influence within this nation and used Pastor Jim as an integral part in forming La Red Pastoral, the largest church network in Santo Domingo, representing a few hundred churches and covering 20 apostles.

In 1996, the Jorgensens founded Sound the Trumpet Ministries International (STTMI), creating a mission's door from the United States to the Dominican Republic and vice versa. STTMI has been used as a vehicle to bring many pastors, prophets, apostles and other servants of the Lord to build and strengthen the church. STTMI has mobilized many short-term mission trips that have seen hundreds of people being sent to work on special church and humanitarian projects, such as medical outreaches for the poor, hurricane shelter and church construction, hurricane relief, children's and youth outreaches, ministering at orphanages and church meetings, etc

Currently, in addition to the Dominican Republic and the United States, the Lord has expanded the ministry to the commonwealth of Puerto Rico and the nations of Spain, Bolivia, and Mexico.
